Press Release
Swisher Commercial
April 21, 2006

John B. Evans, a commercial real estate agent with Swisher Commercial for the past 5 years, has become a partner in the brokerage firm and has taken the title of Vice President. As an officer, he will continue to work toward earning his CCIM designation as well as continue serving the Dexter, Chelsea and west Ann Arbor areas in sales and leasing.

Swisher Commercial is a full-service, independent brokerage firm specializing in commercial real estate and investment properties. Services include sales, leasing, property management and consulting, as well as sales of vacant land. Swisher Commercial's longevity in the industry and commitment to the community supports its strong reputation for integrity, experience and results. It continues to be one of the largest commercial brokerage firms headquartered in Ann Arbor and serving Washtenaw and Lenawee Counties.
