Press Release
Swisher Commercial
June 1, 2006

Mark Buerkle has joined Swisher Commercial as a Licensed Real Estate Agent. Mark brings to the Swisher team experience in international manufacturing with an educational background in International Trade, European Law & Policy and German. His diverse cultural understanding will be an asset to Swisher Commercial as he is fluent in German and has participated in numerous multi-national committees. Mark will be serving the Washtenaw County community in sales and leasing, with a specialization in international placement.

Swisher Commercial is a full-service, independent brokerage firm specializing in commercial real estate and investment properties. Services include sales, leasing, property management and consulting, as well as sales of vacant land. Swisher Commercial's longevity in the industry and commitment to the community supports its strong reputation for integrity, experience and results. It continues to be one of the largest commercial brokerage firms headquartered in Ann Arbor and serving Washtenaw and Lenawee Counties.
