

Ann Arbor / Ypsilanti Regional Chamber Honors Long-Standing Members

Ypsilanti, MI – The Ann Arbor / Ypsilanti Regional Chamber honored its long-standing members during the Early Edition breakfast Wednesday, June 15th at the Eastern Michigan University Student Center. Members who have belonged to the Chamber for 20 years or longer were recognized by John Petz, Chair of the A2Y Chamber Board of Directors, and four of the Chamber's longest standing members shared their experience doing business in the Ann Arbor / Ypsilanti area during the past five decades.

Sandy Janowiak (Janowiak Funeral Home and Geer-Logan Chapel), Laurel Champion (AnnArbor.com), Jim Wanty (O & W Distributors), and Ron Dankert (Swisher Commercial) represented member businesses that joined the Ann Arbor or Ypsilanti Chamber in the 1960s. The Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Chambers were established in 1919 and 1918 respectively and merged in June of 2010.

A full list of honored businesses is available on the Chamber Web site:
