

Property Listing & Marketing Services

When listing your property with Swisher Commercial, you gain extensive commercial real estate market knowledge, industry experience, vital relationships and marketing strategy with international reach. Utilizing Swisher Commercial's thorough market coverage, including database systems and connections, our agents provide your listing with the visibility required to achieve results.

The Swisher team is experienced in navigating the brokerage of specific property types. From vacant land to industrial complexes or downtown office spaces and retail shopping centers, our broker is your match.

As a broker-owned company, Swisher Commercial is uniquely structured to foster the long-term relationships that produce results. We recognize that our clients' success is the measure of our own success. We have well established, trusting relationships with clients and with lending institutions, governmental agencies and service firms. For over 50 years, Swisher agents have played an active role in civic affairs, professional associations, and charitable organizations. The perspective and insight gained from this involvement has been invaluable in providing the highest quality counsel to clients and has earned the respect and recognition of the community at large.
